

This image shows a fragment of a Hebrew manuscript, likely from the Book of Isaiah. The text is written in a medieval Hebrew script. A large, ornate red initial 'D' (Dalet) is visible at the top left. The text is arranged in vertical columns, with some words in red ink (rubrication) interspersed among the black text. The fragment is heavily damaged, with a large section missing on the right side, leaving a jagged edge. The parchment is aged and discolored, with some staining and wear visible.
